Indigenous Women's Hand Drumming with:

Kathy MacLeod-Beaver
October 17th, 2018 from
6:00pm-8:00pm

Aaniin Boozhoo Semaakwe ndishniikaaz Mkwaa doodem, Alderville First Nation ndoojibaa . My name is Kathy MacLeod-Beaver. I am a mother and grandmother to 2 daughters and 2 granddaughters. I am married to my wonderful husband Ken for 34 years. I have been learning anishinaabemowin through songs since 1991. My original teacher was Lily baa (Osawamik). My other teachers have been Elizabeth Osawamik and Melody Crowe. As my teachers tell me the songs come from the Creator and I have been blessed to learn a few. The ojibwe songs I have learned have helped me in my life journey to heal and be able to walk in a good with a good mind. Our sacred songs have brought me peace and I love to share them.

I am not a language teacher but I will provide teachings on the ojibwe alphabet and how to pronounce the words and the meaning of songs we will sing together.

Please don't feel you have to know how to sing or drum. This will be an opportunity to come out and listen or learn the songs. You may already carry songs you may wish to share which is great too.

Miigwech, Kathy.
